Pre- or Post-Trib Rapture?

Dave Hunt — First published in October 2003

THE RAPTURE of the church involves all believers being caught up to heaven—those just resurrected together with those alive at the time (1 Thes 4:13-18). If it occurs at the beginning of the tribulation period, then clearly Christ’s Second Coming at the end of the Tribulation to rescue Israel in the midst of Armageddon is a separate event. According to Zechariah 14:3-5, “all the saints” must accompany Christ back to earth. But if the Rapture occurs at the end of the Tribulation, it must be simultaneous with the Second Coming, making them one event. Which is it: two events separated by seven years, or one event with two diverse purposes?

This question, although it has nothing to do with the gospel of salvation, divides much of the evangelical church. Happily, it can be settled rather easily. The descriptions in Scripture of the Rapture and Second Coming respectively are so different in so many details that they could not possibly be describing the same occurrence. We can’t cover all of these distinctions, but here are a few:

- 1) At the Rapture Christ does not return to earth but catches believers up to meet Him above the earth, taking them directly to heaven: “I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also” (Jn 14:3); “caught up... to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” (1 Thes 4:17)

In contrast, at the Second Coming Christ returns to this earth to rule Israel and the world from David’s throne in Jerusalem: “His feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem” (Zec 14:4); “the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end” (Lk 1:32-33); “And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him.... The armies which were in heaven followed him.... Out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron” (Rv 19:11-15).

- 2) At the Rapture there is a resurrection of all believers who have died up to that time: “The dead shall be raised incorruptible” (1 Cor 15:52-53); “the dead in Christ shall rise first....” (1 Thes 4:16)

In contrast, at the Second Coming there is no resurrection until Antichrist is defeated, he and the false prophet have been “cast alive into a lake of fire” (Rv 19:20), and Satan has been bound in the “bottomless pit [for] a thousand years” (20:1-3)—none of which is even remotely related to the rapture of believers to heaven. Then, to “the first resurrection” that occurred at the Rapture are added a unique group: “Them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (4-5).

- 3) At the Rapture, the bodies of living believers (like those who are resurrected) will be changed to become immortal: “We shall not all sleep [i.e., die], but we shall all be changed...the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we [who are living] shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality” (1 Cor 15:51-53); “We which are alive...shall be caught up together with them [the resurrected saints]...to meet the Lord in the air [clearly requiring immortal bodies].” (1 Thes 4:17)

In contrast, at the Second Coming all of the saints return with Christ from heaven and will therefore already have been changed into immortality: “The LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee” (Zec 14:5); “I saw heaven opened [and one] clothed with a vesture dipped in blood...and the armies which were in heaven followed him [to] smite the nations” (Rv 19:11-15).

- 4) The Rapture occurs during relative peace and prosperity when the world does not expect judgment from God: “And as it was in the days of Noah [the last thing they expected was God’s judgment]...they did eat, they drank...married wives...were given in marriage [and as in] the days of Lot...they bought, they sold...planted...builded.... Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.” (Lk 17:26-30)

Again in complete contrast, the Second Coming occurs in the midst of the worst war the world has ever seen and following the greatest devastation this planet has ever suffered or ever will: “Then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world...nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved” (Mt 24:21-22); “Behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed...power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger.... There was a great earthquake...every mountain and island were moved out of their places...[men] hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks... for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?” (Rv 6:8-17); “And the four angels were loosed...to slay the third part of men” (9:15); “and the...sea...became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. And...the rivers and fountains of waters...became blood...the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and...men were scorched with great heat...and...there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth.... And every island fled away and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail [of large stones]...every stone about the weight of a talent” (16:3-21); “And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True.... And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen.... And I saw the beast [Antichrist], and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and...the false prophet [and they] were cast alive into a lake of fire...” (19:11-21).

- 5) The Rapture occurs when conditions in the world seem to indicate that all is well—when very few expect Christ to return, and He catches even the church by surprise: “Of that day and hour knoweth no man...in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” (Mt 24:36, 44)

In contrast, when the Second Coming occurs, not even Antichrist is caught by surprise—the many visible signs alert everyone that Christ is right at the door: “When ye shall see all these things, know that it [Christ’s coming] is near, even at the doors” (Mt 24:33); “The beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse” (Rv 19:19).

- 6) The Rapture occurs when the church is sleeping, with little expectation of the Lord’s return: “While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept” (Mt 25:5); “Watch ye therefore...lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.” (Mk 13:35-36)

In contrast, the Second Coming occurs at the end of the Tribulation in the midst of worldwide devastation and hopeless distress; the Antichrist and his armies are attacking Israel, much of Jerusalem is already captured (Zec 14:1-2), and Israel is on the verge of annihilation. It is inconceivable that the church, if it were still here, would be slumbering in complacency and under the delusion that “surely Christ wouldn’t come now”!

- 7) Since the Rapture instantly takes us, without dying, out of this world of sin, pain, and sorrow to be forever with Christ and like Him, never more to grieve Him, it is called the “blessed hope”: “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ” (Ti 2:13); “every man that hath this hope.” (1 Jn 3:3)

In contrast, the Second Coming (or a post-trib rapture at that time) could hardly be called a “blessed hope,” inasmuch as very few Christians (if the church were still here) would survive to enjoy it. Having refused to receive the 666 mark of the beast “in their right hand, or in their forehead” and therefore being unable to “buy or sell,” and refusing to “worship the image of the beast [they would] be killed” (Rv 13:15-17). It makes no sense to suggest that if you can secretly eat out of enough garbage pails to avoid starvation and still keep one step ahead of Antichrist’s world police death squads, “Blessed hope! You’ll be raptured at Armageddon!”

- 8) As for the Rapture, unquestionably, the early church was taught to expect it at any moment and to eagerly watch, wait, and look for Christ’s return, when He will catch all believers up into His Father’s house to be with Him eternally: “Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord...” (Lk 12:35-36); “For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body” (Phil 3:20-21); “Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; And to wait for his Son from heaven...even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come” (1 Thes 1:9-10); “looking for that blessed hope” (Ti 2:13); “unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation” (Heb 9:28). One does not watch, wait, and look each day for something that cannot happen until Antichrist’s advent or the end of a seven-year tribulation. Thus, there must be a coming of Christ that could happen at any moment.

In contrast, the Second Coming, by very definition as described in Scripture, cannot be expected momentarily. Therefore, none of the scriptures just quoted concerning watching and waiting and looking for the Lord could refer to the Second Coming or to a post-trib rapture of the church. These scriptures could therefore refer only to a pre-trib rapture.

- 9) The pre-trib Rapture has a powerful, purifying effect upon those who have this hope in Him. The fact that it is to be expected at any moment can only mean that it must come before Antichrist is revealed and before the Tribulation. If Christ could come at any moment, there is no time to waste, no time to delay witnessing, no time to indulge in sin with the idea of repenting and changing one’s ways later: “And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming” (1 Jn 2:28); “And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.” (3:3)

In contrast, anticipation of the Second Coming (or a post-trib rapture at that time) could hardly have a purifying effect, because it can’t take place for at least seven years—plenty of time to delay witnessing, getting right with the Lord, and holy living until later. In fact, the Lord said that believing He couldn’t come at any moment would have the opposite effect from purifying believers: “If that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants...and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the lord of that servant will come at an hour when he is not aware” (Mt 24:48-50; Lk 12:45-46).

- 10) The Rapture is not only an event that we are to expect momentarily and to eagerly anticipate, but we are to ask our Lord to come immediately. Here is how the Bible ends: “And the Spirit and the bride say, Come...Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.” (Rv 22:17,20)

In contrast, the Second Coming is not of such a nature and timing that we could ask Christ to effect it right now. Since Christ obviously cannot return to the earth in judgment to rescue Israel, stop the destruction at Armageddon, and destroy the Antichrist along with his kingdom and his armies until the end of the Tribulation, for us to cry out to Christ, “Come, Lord Jesus!” would be like demanding payment on a debt that isn’t due for seven years. Yet, “the Spirit and the bride” do cry out, “Come, Lord Jesus.” We can only conclude that there must be a coming of Christ that could occur at any moment. It cannot be the Second Coming or a post-trib rapture. It can only be a pre-trib rapture.

- 11) There are at least two events that occur in heaven for which the church must be present and that therefore cannot take place until the Rapture occurs: the judgment seat of Christ, and the marriage of the Lamb to His bride: “for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Rom 14:10); “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor 5:10); “The marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted [to] be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white [as a result of her cleansing at the judgment seat of Christ]” (Rv 19:7-8). Both these events occur prior to Christ’s return to earth and thus demand a prior rapture.

It is clear that the Second Coming cannot occur until these two vital events, which demand the presence of the church in heaven, have taken place. It is only after the Lamb has been married to His bride that she accompanies Him back to earth to rescue Israel and to destroy Antichrist and his armies: “And the armies which were in heaven followed him...clothed in fine linen, white and clean” (Rv 19:14).

We know not why the Bridegroom tarries, but exactly as He foretold, the church is asleep. In that context, our Lord added: “And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him” (Mt 25:6). May each of us be listening eagerly for that cry of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Indeed, we ought to be sounding it aloud, for the Lord could come at any moment to take us to Himself. So let us watch and wait and look for Him in eager anticipation—and encourage others to do the same. It will have a purifying and motivating effect in our lives.

Question: We can't seem to find a church in our area that has godly leadership and biblical preaching. We feel so alone and now just read the Bible and pray at home. What should we do? And how do we find a "good" church?

Response: It is a sad commentary on the state of the church that we receive many such queries.

What marks a "healthy" church? Crucial to the answer is Matthew 18:20: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst...." Christ himself must be the central focus—not a pastor, gripping sermons, a strong missionary emphasis, exciting youth programs, compatible fellow members, or even agreeable doctrines, important as all these factors are. A fervent love for Christ and a heartfelt corporate worship of His Person must be the primary mark of a healthy church.

The early church was thus characterized. It met regularly on the first day of the week in remembrance of His death. That weekly outpouring of praise, worship and thanksgiving had one purpose—to give God His due portion. It isn't primarily a matter of my need, my edification, my enjoyment, or my spiritual satisfaction, but of His worth in my eyes and the eyes of the church.

As I see it, our secondary focus should be our opportunity for servanthood with a corporate body of believers. I give myself to a needy, imperfect people for whom I can pray, for whose needs I can concern myself in practical ways, to whom I can be an encourager and a minister of the Word, and among whom I can demonstrate and work out Christ's desire that His own "might be one." This fellowship is commanded: "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together" (Hebrews 10:25). Is it our joy to gather with God's people in intercessory prayer and study of the Word, or is Sunday-morning-only quite enough? A healthy church will not only gather unto Him, but with each other.

Lastly, I need to assess my own spiritual needs. The shepherds must provide the spiritual food that will nurture the flock, that it might be "thoroughly furnished unto all good works" (2 Timothy 3:17). That's a big order and requires, of course, a teachable flock that loves the Word and is in willing subjection to it. The shepherds must also guard the flock of God by keeping out false and dangerous doctrines contrary to the truth. They must adhere to the pure Word of God as the only authority for faith and morals.

You say, "Wonderful! Lead me to such a church." Remember, however, the order of priority: worship (do you worship sincerely, wholeheartedly, and in a manner satisfying to the object of that worship?); servanthood (do you serve, even as Christ gave us an example, with humility and with joy?); personal needs (are you growing, maturing, taking on Christ's character?).

The final decision as to your church affiliation must be, prayerfully, yours. Is your personal worship of the Savior so joyful and satisfying a thing both to you and to Him that it supersedes other considerations? Do your opportunities for service render your fellowship sufficiently meaningful and significant? Or do doctrinal concerns or lack of biblical preaching and teaching cancel out the other two? You must seek the Lord for His answer. God's comforting assurance remains: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

TBC NOTES

Short Term—Huge Blessing

I thank Jesus for those who have heeded God's calling to be missionaries. For those of us who know missionaries personally and are familiar with their life's work in the Lord, we are in awe of the sacrifices they make for the glory of God. Yet any believer who has spent some time with missionaries in their location of service knows what others may have missed from afar. It's the joy of the Lord that comes from being true to His calling.

Recently, my wife, Peggy, our youngest son Patrick, and our son-in-law Michael, joined me on a short-term family mission trip to Mongolia. Our heart was to bless, to serve, and to support our Mongolian brothers and sisters in the Lord and those called to minister to them. For all that we may have been used of the Lord to bless them, it seemed that they blessed us a hundredfold more. Words can't describe the wonderful experience of praying and worshipping with God's children in a land that rarely, if ever, comes to mind by those of us in the West. All four of us concurred that the trip was personally life-changing.

My encouragement is: as the Lord provides the occasion to visit a missionary family in their location of service, go for it! Make sure that the trip presents no burden on the missionaries but is indeed an opportunity to bless them as well as those they have been blessing. Prayers and financial support for missionaries from afar is great, but the experience of up close and personal may take one's heart to a whole new level of love for and commitment to them. That's what it did for my family and me.

QUOTABLE

The signs of the present times point strongly towards the Holy Land and the once glorious city of Jerusalem; and the eyes of many (both Jews and Gentiles) are turned hither in anxious expectation of the approaching fulfilment of those promises of favour and restoration which are so strikingly set forth in Scripture, with reference to that land and her scattered and degraded people. The threatened judgments have been awfully and literally accomplished, and shall not the promises of God be found to be equally sure? It will be no hard matter for the same Almighty power which has turned her fruitful valleys into a desolate wilderness, to cause that "wilderness" once more "to blossom as the rose"; and the same Hand that has scattered her inhabitants over the whole earth, and made them a mark for the scorn and reproach of the Gentile nations, can as easily gather them together and bring them again into their own Land.

LEFT BEHIND OR LED ASTRAY? – EXPOSED

— A TBC guest article by Dr. Paul Wilkinson

A NEW DVD DOCUMENTARY has been released by Good Fight Ministries entitled, Left Behind or Led Astray? Examining the Origins of the Secret Pre-Tribulation Rapture. Good Fight Ministries is run by post-tribulationist Joe Schimmel, the senior pastor at Blessed Hope Chapel in Simi Valley, California. Schimmel's documentary is endorsed by evangelist Ray Comfort and by Kirk Cameron, star of the original Left Behind movies. The following write-up appears on the back cover: "Take a fascinating journey with us as we examine the shocking origins of the secret, pre-tribulation rapture doctrine... Featuring expert commentary from David M. Bennett, Dr. Mark Patterson, Jacob Prasch, Joel Richardson, and Dave MacPherson."

The truth of the matter is that the four and one-half-hour film seriously distorts the historical evidence and is full of false accusations, unsubstantiated myths, and lies. These include the following:

1. That a pre-tribulation Rapture cannot be proved from the Bible.
2. That pastors who are preparing their flock to meet Jesus Christ, rather than the Antichrist, are "failing in their role as a shepherd and a pastor" and leading millions of believers into apostasy.
3. That if the Apostles had taught a pre-trib Rapture, "we would see it in the writings of the early Church writers," i.e., those commonly referred to as the Church Fathers, who were prominent theologians and bishops in the Church after the Apostles.
4. That the history of belief in the pre-trib Rapture is "sordid" and "scandalous."
5. That the origins of the doctrine of the pre-trib Rapture are "occultic" and "demonic," having been inspired by "the spirit of Antichrist".
6. That the doctrine of an any-moment, pre-trib Rapture can be traced back, in some form, to the Jesuits, notably to a "deceitful Jesuit" by the name of Manuel Lacunza.
7. That Scottish Presbyterian minister Edward Irving and his circle, known as "the Irvingites," are the real progenitors of the pre-trib Rapture, having been fully persuaded by Lacunza's writings, and that they were "prone to dabble a little bit with the occult" and were "notorious for their channelling of lying spirits."
8. That the founder of the Plymouth Brethren, John Nelson Darby (1800-1882), who is widely credited with having revived and popularised the doctrine of the pre-trib Rapture in the nineteenth century, was "an opportunist" who effectively stole and developed the notion of a secret pre-trib Rapture after hearing a fifteen-year-old Scottish girl called Margaret MacDonald give a "prophetic utterance" in Scotland in 1830. The documentary further claims that MacDonald "engaged in occult activity."
9. That Darby and many of the Brethren were greatly influenced by Irving and the Irvingites, borrowing from and proliferating their pre-trib teaching.
10. That Darby taught "another Gospel and two ways of salvation."
11. That "John Nelson Darby was...a confused extremist...a cult leader...a dangerous despot...a crazy man who hurt people."

Chapter 9 of the documentary is entitled "Demon Deception" and Chapter 11, "Pre-Trib, the Occult, and the 20th–21st Centuries." The accusation is made that Darby "espoused a socially cultic mentality that was similar to that of Charles Taze Russell, who founded the Jehovah's Witnesses, and Joseph Smith, the prophet of Mormonism in the same century." To give weight to the lie, Darby's photograph is positioned between those of Russell and Smith. Schimmel cites Dave Hunt, the late founder of The Berean Call ministry, who, he states, "has done a great job exposing cults and aberrations within the church through the years, [but] missed the occult history of the secret Rapture that he himself vigorously promoted."

ASIA BIBI 'HEALTHY AND SAFE'?

CHRISTIANHEADLINES.COM, 10/27/15, "ASIA BIBI 'HEALTHY AND SAFE,' SAYS HER LAWYER" [EXCERPTS]: The lawyers of the only Pakistani Christian woman to be given the death penalty for alleged blasphemy met her in prison last week, reporting that she is safe and in good health.

The final appeal for Aasiya Noreen, commonly known as Asia Bibi, is pending before Pakistan's top court...The mother of five has been in prison since the summer of 2009, when she was arrested on allegations of insulting the prophet of Islam.

Defense lawyer Saif-ul-Malook [was] accompanied by Asia Bibi's husband Ashiq Masih on his Oct. 21 visit in the Multan Women's Prison.

Malook [said] that since early October several foreign news agencies...contacted him over news that Noreen's health was worsening. "After this I decided to visit the prison and personally meet Asia, to ascertain if the news was correct," he said.

"Only family of the inmate or the lawyer representing the convict can visit the chamber, so Ashiq and I went together to see her. Inmates on death row are separated and locked into an 8 by 10 foot chamber called a death cell," Malook said.

Yet there also are indications all is not well inside Multan Jail. Open Doors International, a charity that supports Christians who are under pressure because of their faith, said this month that "people close to the case" have told church contacts in Pakistan that the prison is an overcrowded, unsanitary "hell hole," and that Noreen is in poor health.

CHRISTIAN FAITH STRONGER IN PERSECUTION

MISSIONNETWORKNEWS.ORG, 9/8/15, "FAITH OF CHRISTIANS IN ORISSA STRONGER IN FACE OF PERSECUTION" [EXCERPTS]: August 31, 2008 triggered extreme Christian persecution in Orissa, India. Seven years later, there's still fear and persecution, but there's also grounded faith in Christ.

Hindu extremists—who pressured Christians to convert or reconvert to Hinduism—slaughtered 100 Christians when they refused to do so. Three hundred churches and 6,000 homes were raided and ransacked, many Christian women were raped, and around 56,000 Christians were left homeless.

"For most of us, we were prayerful and interacted with the Christian community there in India at that time," John Sparks of India Partners says....Orissa has remained an unsafe place for Christians, even with the passage of time. Sparks shares that he was simply going into the area, a policeman told him he had to leave because it was unsafe for white people.

Sparks [said] "One of the pastors that works with our ministry there was assassinated—killed by people that were against the Gospel and...shot down in cold blood. So persecution keeps on going..." The indigenous pastor had been working with a church connected to India Partners for a number of years. He leaves behind his wife, 12-year-old daughter, and 5-year-old son.

However, the community of the church is helping to surround the family with prayer and encouragement.

LIQUID WATER ON MARS?

ICR.ORG, 10/8/15 "LIQUID WATER ON MARS?" [EXCERPTS]: Scientists have announced indirect evidence of liquid water on the surface of Mars, raising hopes among secular scientists that life may be present on the "red planet."

Full confirmation of this purported discovery will be delayed, perhaps indefinitely, as an international treaty bans "harmful contamination" of celestial bodies. Vehicles and robots that have not been completely sterilized will not be allowed to approach suspected water sites in order to prevent possible contamination with microbes that may have originated on Earth. However, if Martian water is confirmed, it would definitely be a significant discovery, though not nearly as important as evolutionary scientists would like to make it out to be.

...[I]t has long been known that large quantities of liquid water were present on the Martian surface, although likely only for a brief time. Moreover, there is extensive evidence for catastrophic flooding on Mars. It is one of the ironies of the creation-evolution controversy, that evolutionary scientists have no trouble accepting the idea of catastrophic flooding on Mars (despite the presence of, at best, miniscule amounts of liquid water on the surface today), yet they vehemently deny the possibility of global catastrophic flooding on Earth, a planet seventy percent of which is still underwater!

NEW! VIRTUAL TOUR TO THE TEMPLE 100+ HIGH DEFINITION, 360° PANORAMAS!

Price—Three years in the making, Dr. Randall Price and a team from Inner-Cube Publishing in Germany traveled to Israel to produce a user-friendly interactive tool for research and investigation of the sites related to the Tabernacle and Temple. Because tour groups visiting the Temple Mount today are restricted by the Islamic Waqf, and the only instruction allowed on the site is from the Islamic viewpoint, the team made multiple visits using a hidden camera and microphone to capture video footage of Dr. Price teaching—even in the midst of an Islamic riot against suspected Jewish worshippers who had entered the site!

Shot in 360 degree views, users are able to navigate anywhere on and around the Temple Mount (including the Mt. of Olives), read data points on each site, and see and hear video clips of Dr. Price’s teaching. Other tour sites include the Tabernacle location at ancient Shiloh and the reconstructed Tabernacle in Timna Park. Original artistic reproductions of the Second Temple structures add even more interest. This unique new tool will prove useful for educators wanting to show students the sites (as well as assign them research projects touring the sites) and for anyone interested in an interactive virtual reality tour to the Holy Land. 50% OFF! UNDERSTANDING CHRISTIAN ZIONISM

Understanding Christian Zionism

Wilkinson—Christian Zionism has been described by Hamas as “the greatest danger to world truth, justice, and peace” and by the church as “a powerful force” that “fuels the Arab-Israeli conflict” and “encourages the destruction of millions of people.” How sustainable are these charges, and is there a case to answer? By locating Christian Zionism firmly within the evangelical tradition, Paul Wilkinson takes issue with those who have portrayed it as a “totally unbiblical menace” and as the “road map to Armageddon.” Charting in detail its origins and historical development, he argues that Christian Zionism lays the biblical foundation for Israel’s restoration and the return of Christ. No one has contributed more to this cause than its leading architect and patron, John Nelson Darby, an “uncompromising champion for Christ’s glory and God’s truth.” Edited by Andrew D. Robinson, The Berean Call, 358 pp.

Christian Zionists, the need to define this movement, trace its origins, chart its historical development, and evaluate its impact has never been more necessary” (an excerpt from the introduction). Read by the author. 12.5 hrs.

EVANGELICAL LEADERS COMMEND WILKINSON’S SCHOLARSHIP & RESEARCH

DAVE HUNT

AUTHOR, INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE SPEAKER, FOUNDER OF THE BEREAN CALL

“Wilkinson’s impeccable documentation and reasoning from Scripture thoroughly refute the myth that Darby got his doctrine of the pre-tribulation Rapture from a Scottish girl and two Jesuit priests. Primary historical sources cited herein clearly demonstrate the contrary. I highly recommend this excellent treatment of a controversial subject that has confused many.”

TIM LAHAYE

MINISTER, EDUCATOR, BEST-SELLING AUTHOR, CO-FOUNDER OF THE PRE-TRIB RESEARCH CENTER

“Few dedicated Christian scholars with an evangelical ministry have been attacked more unfairly than John Nelson Darby, who did more to promote the doctrine of the pre-tribulation Rapture of the Church than any other person. Darby did not invent it, of course, for it is both biblical and ancient, but he popularized it during the nineteenth century. This well researched and readable book carefully sets the record straight and makes a valuable contribution to prophetic studies.”

DR. ARNOLD G. FRUCHTENBAUM

AUTHOR, FOUNDER AND DIRECTOR OF ARIEL MINISTRIES

“In our day, when there is such confusion as to the different streams of Christian Zionism (some of which I can endorse but some I cannot), and due to the personal attacks on John Nelson Darby, many believers are confused about whether they should support Israel, and others who do support Israel often do not fully understand why. This work is greatly needed to clarify these issues, and should be read by all who wish to understand Darby, Zionism, and Israel.”

DR. MARK HITCHCOCK

AUTHOR, ADJUNCT PROFESSOR AT DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, PASTOR OF FAITH BIBLE CHURCH, EDMOND, OKLAHOMA

“With so much confusion and misinformation today concerning dispensationalism, Christian Zionism, and the role of J. N. Darby, Wilkinson’s work is a breath of theological and historical fresh air. I am deeply grateful for his fine scholarship and the balanced way in which he makes his case. This work should quickly become a standard on Christian Zionism and Darby’s influence on this important movement.”

DR. RANDALL PRICE

AUTHOR, PRESIDENT OF WORLD OF THE BIBLE MINISTRIES, INC., DISTINGUISHED RESEARCH PROFESSOR AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CENTER FOR JUDAIC STUDIES AT LIBERTY UNIVERSITY

“Dr. Paul Wilkinson has provided a vital service in affirming Darby’s legacy and pivotal role in modern evangelicalism’s renewed understanding of the central place of Israel in biblical eschatology and its support of the cause of Zionism. In the process he offers a much-needed clarification of Christian Zionism, distinguishing its many current forms from the classical dispensational Restorationism of Darby’s theological system. In addition he has given the recent opposing movement springing from replacement theology and political revisionism a proper name—Christian Palestinianism—identifying its tenets with a precision that it has rarely done for itself. In the final analysis, Dr. Wilkinson has restored Darby’s reputation as having been a pious visionary used by God at a crucial time in history to formulate for His church a comprehensive and coherent theological system that provided the biblical foundation for Christian Zionism. For any student of ecclesiastical and political history, as well as systematic and historical theology, this book is essential reading.”

Global Peace and the Rise of Antichrist

The Berean Call—Dave recounts: “When I was a boy and I read Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers and so forth...we didn’t take it seriously, it was fantasy. Well...we found out that the science fiction writers were prophets. And whatever they imagined, someone would eventually be able to perform.... The younger generation sees science fiction in that way today. They are seeing depicted on the screen...something that they realize man can ultimately achieve. And that is why God scattered the human race.” Dave proceeds to reveal how leading laboratories were proudly “undoing the Babel effect.” More than 20 years later, Dave’s talk is still instructive to us regarding Satan’s rapidly advancing plans and ability to harness and manipulate technology in order to prepare humanity for the coming kingdom of Antichrist. 1 DVD, 60 min. Prophecy and World Events

The Berean Call—As Dave explains in this powerful and inspiring teaching, Bible prophecy is, in fact, the great proof that God gives for the historicity, authenticity, and authority of the Scriptures. What is anti-Semitism all about? Dave exposes the roots of this pervasive hatred of Jews, from ancient to modern times, as Satan’s plan to thwart the Word of God. Why? Because God’s integrity is tied to the restoration and blessing of the Jewish people. Dave recounts little-known history of modern anti-Semitism, including the post-Holocaust persecution of Holocaust survivors who were turned away, persecuted and killed, even by those who had opposed Hitler, after WWII. Dave explores dozens of Scriptures concerning the past, present, and future of Israel and our blessed hope in Christ. 1 DVD, 54 min. Retail $12.99

Ruth Hunt—From Adam and Eve to Samson to David and beyond, we may catch glimpses of ourselves in the feats and foibles and even the deep loneliness of these very human characters through whom God chose to work amazing acts that would shape and rock the very world in which we live today. Ruth Hunt knows that Jesus Christ is Savior, but she also knows that He is the ultimate Friend—the only One who can truly fill the emptiness we sometimes experience. With great skill and enormous insight, Mrs. Hunt ties each Bible story back to mankind’s only source of help and beautifully reveals how Christian love and compassion can banish loneliness and despair forever. Psychology and the Church

Hunt/McMahon—So prevalent is the use of psychotherapy among Christians today that many pastors themselves are either licensed therapists or are the greatest source of referrals to professional counselors. In addition, the study of psychology has become the number two career choice for all college students. In fact, the popularity of this “science of the soul” is even greater among those enrolled in Christian colleges, universities, and seminaries from coast to coast. The purpose of this book is not to attack or condemn evangelicals who are practicing psychotherapists or those who have been helped by what is commonly called “Christian Psychology.” Rather, this volume acknowledges the value of believers bearing one another’s burdens through prayer, fellowship, and the Word of God. APPLES OF GOLD TBC DAILY DEVOTIONAL

The Berean Call—Although the original edition was bound in a spiral “flip” design for desktop use that blessed thousands of readers, many found the type size a bit too small for comfort. That edition is now out of print, so we've re-typeset the text and added a few more Scriptures in two new formats. A square 6x6-inch “gift” design, great for portability, with text approximately 125% larger than before; and an extra-large-print “landscape” edition that is a full 150% bigger than the original calendar. Both are ideal for gift-giving and personal use. Words “Fitly Spoken” from The Berean Call is a perpetual daily devotional, now in an easy-to-read paperback format with larger type size. Drawn from years of replies to reader inquiries, this handy “prescription” of Apples each day is strong medicine for protecting against “discernmentitis” (a diminished ability to test and prove all things according to God's Word). Whether you're at home or on the go, this daily reader begins to work exactly when and where you need—and can be used to mark each day of the month for any year to come!

Climbers and Creepers - Creation Cards

It is because God has built into mankind a wonder at the things that He has made—He has revealed Himself through His creation (General Revelation). Children especially love to talk about and study animals. The hope that inspired the Creation Cards is that they will be taken on field trips, zoo tours, to shopping centers, grocery stores, restaurants, recreational areas, parks, gas stations, malls, fast food stops—EVERYWHERE—with the purpose of bringing people face to face with facts about God’s amazing creation. May peoples’ eyes then be opened to the truth that the Creator Jesus Christ is the One who is able to be their Savior. “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Romans 10:13). 50 cards, 6 designs.

Creation, Evolution, and the Authority of Scripture

Creation Education Center—The worldview presented by the media and public school systems regarding origins is in stark contrast to what God’s Word says. How do we determine the truth? What is our final source of authority? Do we have to reject science in order to believe the biblical account of creation? Does Genesis really matter? Psalm 11:3 states that “if the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” Genesis is foundational to virtually every major doctrine we hold true as Christians. This presentation will greatly strengthen your faith in the authority of God’s Word while removing the intimidation from science. 1 DVD, 34 min.

Creation in Six Days

Creation Education Center—This talk is a response to those in the Christian community who have felt it necessary to reinterpret the straightforward reading of Genesis in order to accommodate either evolution as a whole or at least the “millions of years” that are typically associated with the idea of evolution. They either say that God simply “used evolution as His means of creation” or that He “created everything over millions and millions of years” (i.e., the “days” in Genesis chapter one were actually millions of years each). In this talk, both scripture and science are examined and reasons why we should trust the straightforward reading are presented in a very gracious but confident manner. 1 DVD, 59 min.

DVD336 Retail $15.00 wt .2 $12.00

Evolution? - Probable or Problematic?

Creation Education Center—Certain aspects of evolution seem fairly plausible to many people... even Christians. If we use our imaginations, we can envision fish slowly turning into amphibians, with their fins gradually being transformed into legs and their lungs adapting to breathe air. However, when we take a closer look at what actually has to go on inside (in the DNA) we see a very different picture. It’s like looking under the hood of a beautiful red sports car only to find that its engine is completely missing! This presentation clearly demonstrates (in laymen’s terms) that molecules-to-man evolution is virtually impossible. 1 DVD, 45 min.
